

Sample Questions:

- ◆ Could you tell me a little about your article?
- ◆ Where did you get the idea for your innovation?
- ◆ What made you choose this particular focus?
- ◆ How did your team go about carrying out the assignment?
- ◆ How did you divide the tasks and make decisions about what would be included?
- ◆ How did you get the background information?
- ◆ Were sources difficult to find?
- ◆ What challenges did this present?
- ◆ How did you overcome them?
- ◆ Did you talk with any chemists regarding your idea, or focus your search on printed materials?
- ◆ What were some considerations you had to take into account as you developed your innovation?
- ◆ Why is your innovation/breakthrough important/necessary for improving the quality of life 25 years from now?
- ◆ Did you talk with any others about your idea?
- ◆ If so, what reaction did they have?
- ◆ Why did you choose the particular design for the magazine cover and article pages?
- ◆ If you were in charge of a project that would further develop this innovation, what would your next steps be?
- ◆ What obstacles do you foresee being encountered by someone trying to put your ideas into action?